

A razor thin layer of facets, 1.5 feet under the surface, are breaking clean in our stability tests (ECTP17 and 21). Last Saturday, skiers triggered avalanches on this. It can be found on most aspects. Photo: GNFAC

Advisory Region
Cooke City
Cooke City, 2013-02-21