

Large avalanche on Mt. Republic

Large natural avalanche on Mt. Republic. This is a heavily wind loaded slope as indicated by large overhanging cornices, and likely broke at the end of the recent storm that dropped 6 feet of snow (6" SWE) in seven days.

Photo: B. Fredlund

Advisory Region
Cooke City
Cooke City, 2018-02-10