

Cornices north of Bridger Bowl boundary

A skier observed large cornices north of the Bridger Bowl boundary, despite the east wind several days ago eroding some snow at higher elevations. Always give these beasts a wide berth, and remember that they can break farther back than expected. Photo: H. Coppolillo

Advisory Region

Bridger Range

Longitude

-110.94W

Latitude

45.84N

Bridger Range, 2018-02-20