

A skier in Beehive Basin on Saturday, November 9th noted: "Skinned into Beehive Basin and up to the meadows. Dug several pits and observed test scores on several columns between ECTP20-21 breaking 12 from the ground. Weak, sugary facets were observed at this layer as well as at the ground layer. Total snow depth was approximately 75 cm." Photo: Steven Rehbein

Advisory Region
Northern Madison
Northern Madison, 2013-11-11