

Snowmobile triggered on Skyline Ridge, close up

From riders involved: "Yesterday we were the ones in the big sky avalanche. There was no markings on the spot we were climbing. Further down the mountains there were climbs at the same angles of this slope. Thankfully the rider was above the slide when it started and managed to stay on top. Rider walked down the debris and we found the sled lower down in the trees. No injuries." Photo: Anonymous

Advisory Region
Southern Madison

Longitude

-111.23W

Latitude

44.92N

Avalanche Details: Snowmobile triggered big slides on Skyline Ridge

Southern Madison, 2020-02-02