

Deep natural avalanche on Bridger Peak

On 2/9/20 we saw deep avalanche crowns on all aspects through the Bridger Range. These broke at various times throughout the recent storm that deposited 4 feet of snow with over 4.5" of SWE in the last week. This slide is on a southeast aspect of Bridger Peak around 9,000'. Photo: R. Griffen

Advisory Region

Bridger Range

Longitude

-110.94W

Latitude

45.77N

Bridger Range, 2020-02-09